

Gorge Film Club

Programme for Summer 2020. Contact: gorgefilmclub@gmail.com

In Coalbrookdale and Ironbridge Community Centre TF8 7DX

April 27 at 7.30 pm: Tickets £6 to include fishy snacks and salad

A high-school romance and – a decade later – a murder, all set in the fishing community of the Puget Sound.
1999 Director: Scott Hicks 127 mins Cert 15
a beautifully photographed, brilliantly cast, smartly acted, well-told story – Plugged-In

Pay Bar

May 08 at 7.30 pm, to conclude the Dale’s celebration of VE Day: Tickets £3.50

Presented jointly with Events in the Dale

VE Day 1945: Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret venture from the Palace to join the celebrations in this comedy drama.

2015 Directed by Julian Jarrold 97 minutes Cert 12
Trashy fun from start to finish – Mark Kermode

Pay Bar

May 18 at 7.30 pm: Tickets £7.50 to include a whisky tasting and bar snacks

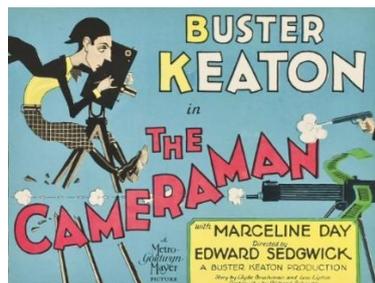

A comedy-drama built round a heist from a distillery: it gives some Glasgow petty criminals a new start in life.
2012 Directed by Ken Loach 106 mins Cert 18
Like a wee dram of the good stuff The Angels' Share leaves a warm glow. – LA Times

Pay Bar – Please book in advance

June 15 at 7.30 pm: Tickets £7.50 to include a hot supper

The return of pianist MEG MORLEY to accompany tonight’s silent movie!

DON’T MISS THIS!!
1928 Directed by Keaton and Sedgwick 67 minutes Cert U

THE CAMERAMAN is Buster’s last great silent film, a hilarious and touching story about the misadventures of a would-be newsreel cameraman.

Pay Bar - Please book in advance

July 13 at 7.30 pm: Tickets £7.50 to include delicious Greek food

A Grecian summer holiday brings self-awareness to Shirley as Willy Russell's award-winning play becomes an award-winning film.

1989 Directed by Lewis Gilbert 108 mins Cert 15

Pauline Collins is "irresistible" – Variety

Pay Bar – Please book in advance

August 10 at 7.30 pm Tickets £7.00 to include strawberries and cream and a glass of Prosecco

Stella Gibbons's novel mercilessly pokes fun at Shropshire's most famous novelist, Mary Webb. The film is just as entertaining.

1995 Directed by John Schlesinger 95 mins Cert PG

...dour, eccentric and very funny – Roger Ebert

Pay Bar – Please book in advance

This year's art trail through the Gorge runs from September 03 – 13
Tickets £3.50 for each film

September 07 at 2.30 pm

A SONY PICTURES CLASSICS RELEASE
A film by MIKE LEIGH
TIMOTHY SPALL

Mr.
TURNER

Writer/director Leigh explained, "I felt there was scope for a film examining the tension between this very mortal, flawed individual, and the epic work, the spiritual way he had of distilling the world"

2014 Director Mike Leigh 150 minutes Cert 12

...a spirited, intimate and funny character study, an artist biopic that avoids the trap of mythologising its subject – BFI

Leaflets printed by Wozencroft Design and Print Ltd, Daimler House Hortonwood 30, Telford. Phone: 01952 606951

September 07 at 7.30 pm

This biographical film, chronicling the life of L. S. Lowry, considers the relationship between Lowry and his mother Elizabeth, who has reservations over her son's career in painting.

2019 Director Adrian Noble 91 mins Cert PG

An entertaining showcase for two first-class performers. – Guardian